

One
in five children
has a mental illness

But nobody talks about it. These children and their families suffer in silence.

Please, start talking about this issue with friends. We need to stop the stigma so families get the help they need. 90% of parents report an improvement in their child after treatment.*

Based on exit interviews at Clarity Child Guidance Center.*

Learn more at 1in5minds.org